OMA'S PRIDE PET FOOD

OUR STORY

Named for our beloved matriarch, Margaret "Oma" Miller, Oma's Pride is a fourth generation family owned and operated company. Since our beginnings in 1950 as a small poultry farm in Connecticut's Farmington Valley, we've known that the key to our pets living a long and healthy life starts in their bowl. We believe in a protein focused diet of real, natural, unprocessed foods - as nature intended. Our pet food is made in small batches with care from local sources we've trusted for decades. As pioneers in raw pet food, our unwavering commitment to quality and our customers stands the test of time. Explore our full line of treats, meals, chews, and supplements along with raw complete meals, ground proteins, recreational bones, and much more.
